

A TASTE OF HISTORY

In the early 1800's a recipe like no other was created. A delicate and delicious bake filled and smothered with exotic flavours. The Alfajor is the unique recipe that became the national product of Latin America.

The Alfajor immediately began a tradition, and expanded throughout Latin American cuisine. There is nothing quite like this delicate hand made product. Alfajores are carefully prepared using a base of natural ingredients.

In 2005 Latin Passions Confectionery began producing the Alfajor in Melbourne, calling it Latin Passions Alfajor.

The range from Alfajores then went to its sister product called caramel bites, then branched out to producing Truffles of a new and exciting concept, and from this now we offer Churros (Spanish donuts) that are taking Australia by storm!

If this isn't enticing enough try our fantastic muffin range. We have kept it's authentic recipe and added a Latin touch.

All products contain Latin Passions caramel filling made with its traditional recipe. That is the Latin secret, when will you discover it?
